

FRANKLIN EARLY CHILDHOOD PRESCHOOL PHILOSOPHY

Children

Because we believe children are unique, capable and curious and come from culturally diverse families rich in knowledge, experience, creativity and ideas ...

every day in our preschool you will see children playing, connecting with each other, educators and the environment, chatting, observing, questioning, striving for independence, exploring and learning about themselves, the world and each other.

Families

Because we believe families know their children best, are a rich source of knowledge and want to be active participants in their child's learning ...

every day in our preschool you will see educators welcoming families, partnering with them in open, honest, respectful and reciprocal ways that celebrate every family

Educators

Because we believe our educators are inspired, committed, skilled, responsive and have an influential role in the growth and development of students ...

every day in our preschool you will see educators building positive relationships, responding to individual needs and interests, setting high expectations, providing students with quality feedback, using explicit teaching approaches and stimulating the potential in every learner.

Learning

Because we believe learning is a life long journey which happens when children engage in exciting, open ended, and holistic play experiences ...

every day in our preschool you will see children questioning, investigating and inquiring into the world around them through a balance of meaningful, intentional teaching and spontaneous moments that build on their interests and strengths, foster their curiosity and empower them to inquire, investigate and become confident and involved learners.
